As a condition to being able to begin the course, NMLS rules stipulate that each student must agree; failure to agree will result in the student not being able to start or complete the course. A copy of the NMLS Rules of Conduct for Students (ROC) form is located at the end of this syllabus.

School Policies:

Registration:

- The student is responsible for verification of qualifications for licensing, before registering for a course of study.
- Registrants with any form of criminal history, including misdemeanor or felony convictions, or who are currently on parole, must contact the relevant licensing agency before registering for any pre-licensing or pre-certification course.
- An e-mail account is essential to participate in the online program.
• Any attempt to take the course under an assumed identity, or to accept assistance from others in completing any portion of the course, may result in rejection of a license application, revocation of an existing license, fines, or other penalty provided by law governing the relevant state regulatory agency to whom the student submitted documentation.

Course Participation:

• Students are asked to please be certain that their address book is updated to include acceptance of e-mails from StudentServices@ProEducate.com and Instructor@ProEducate.com

• Instructors may not, in any venue, answer questions of a personal, professional, business, or legal nature, and students should not interpret any information received from instructors, or course content, as being legal or professional advice.

• The instructional staff will respond to questions by e-mail as quickly as possible. In general, questions received by noon on any business day are responded to by 5 pm the following business day. Students who abuse the e-mail opportunity may be dropped from the course, solely at the discretion of the school, without penalty to the school beyond refund of tuition.

• All students required to exercise “chat room netiquette” when participating in group discussions.
  o Unlike a private conversation with a single person via the Internet, the chat room means that many people will read your conversation. It’s rather like talking loudly in a crowded restaurant. One of the goals of chat room etiquette is to keep conversations short and to the point. Longer comments and questions are usually better directed in e-mails. Keep conversations on topic.
  o Rules to follow in a chat room:
    • Introduce yourself.
    • State your question clearly.
    • Be civil to others. Be friendly, and respect others in the room.
    • Give the room a chance to answer you. Patience is a virtue.
    • Do not spam or flood the room with repeated questions, statements, or links.
    • Avoid using font colors other than black.
    • Avoid typing in all caps.
    • Do not use any inappropriate or suggestive language.
    • Do not mention names of specific lenders or companies in the business.
    • Do not discuss hiring practices or job offers you have received.
    • Do not pose questions of a legal nature.
    • Do not ask or pose questions about your personal situation; ask questions pertaining only to course material.
    • Avoid disclosing or asking personal information.
    • When you are ready to leave the chat room, chat room etiquette suggests that you say a general goodbye to the group, just as you might when leaving a party.

NMLS Rules of Conduct for Students (ROC)
Student Copy

The Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing Act (SAFE Act), requires that state-licensed MLOs complete pre-licensing (PE) and continuing education (CE) courses as a condition to be licensed. The SAFE Act also requires that all education completed as a condition for state licensure be NMLS approved. Since 2009 NMLS has established course design, approval, and delivery standards which NMLS approved course providers are required to meet. To further ensure students meet the education requirements of the SAFE Act, NMLS has established a Rules of Conduct (ROC). The ROC, which have been approved by the NMLS Mortgage Testing & Education Board, and the NMLS Policy Committee, both of which are comprised of state regulators, are intended to stress that NMLS approved education be delivered and completed with integrity.

Rules of Conduct

As an individual completing either pre-licensure education (PE) or continuing education (CE), I agree to abide by the following rules of conduct:

1. I attest that I am the person who I say I am and that all my course registration information is accurate.

2. I acknowledge that I will be required to show a current government issued form of identification prior to, and during the course, and/or be required to answer questions that are intended to verify/validate my identity prior to, and during the course.

3. I understand that the SAFE Act and state laws require me to spend a specific amount of time in specific subject areas. Accordingly, I will not attempt to circumvent the requirements of any NMLS approved course.

4. I will not divulge my login ID or password or other login credential(s) to another individual for any online course.

5. I will not seek or attempt to seek outside assistance to complete the course.

6. I will not give or attempt to give assistance to any person who is registered to take an NMLS approved pre-licensure or continuing education course.

7. I will not engage in any conduct that creates a disturbance or interferes with the administration of the course or other students’ learning.

8. I will not engage in any conduct that would be contrary to good character or reputation, or engage in any behavior that would cause the public to believe that I would not operate in the mortgage loan business lawfully, honestly or fairly.

9. I will not engage in any conduct that is dishonest, fraudulent, or would adversely impact the integrity of the course(s) I am completing and the conditions for which I am seeking licensure or renewal of licensure.
I understand that NMLS approved course providers are not authorized by NMLS to grant exceptions to these rules and that I alone am responsible for my conduct under these rules. I also understand that these rules are in addition to whatever applicable rules my course provider may have.

I understand that the course provider or others may report any alleged violations to NMLS and that NMLS may conduct an investigation into alleged violations and that it may report alleged violations to the state(s) in which I am seeking licensure or maintain licenses, or to other states.

I further understand that the results of any investigation into my alleged violation(s) may subject me to disciplinary actions by the state(s) or the State Regulatory Registry (SRR), including removal of any course from my NMLS record, and/or denial or revocation of my license(s).
